	Agricultural Policy

1.Policy statement: To encourage agricultural promotional activities among students and to develop wisdom among them.

2.Scope of the policy: One of the most important challenges of the world is to produce enough food for the growing population of the earth. The food production needs to be increased not only because of the growth of population but also because of the dietary habits. BMCCA envisages widen the scope of awareness among the students about the vital importance of agricultural production and to flourish practical knowledge among them by providing allied activities in the campus itself.

3. Feasibility study must be conducted at the beginning of every academic year by agricultural promotional committee consisting of members of Bio-diversity club and Entrepreneurship development club.

4. There should be a budgeted reap for every farming activity and actual should be analysed with the budget by the agricultural promotion committee.

5. Execute the existed plan of Entrepreneurship development club regarding cultivation of millets.

6. NSS students must create a vegetable garden under the backspace of campus.

7. Proper watering of plants should be ensured by security guards.
